SEVENTEENTH DAY OF STRUGGLE

In Many Respects Duplicate of Those That Have Preceded It.

BOTH SIDES ATTACK.

Allies and Germans Reinforcing Rapidly—British Army Authorities Fear Disease Will Appear.

Paris, Sept. 29. 3:0. p. m.—"On our. left along the River. Somme," the French official statement issued this afternoon say, "the Germans attempted numerous attacks, which the allies repulsed."

While a rigid censorship, the strictest since the beginning of the war, cloaks all the movements along the great battle line in France, early reports from Paris indicate that the early hours of the seventeenth day of the great battle of the Aisne is in many rspects the duplicate of those that have preceeded it.

Fierce attacks in various places by the Germans to relieve the steadily increasing pressure on the extreme right are being met by counter assaults, and no decisive results are claimed by either side. But the arrival of fresh troops may settle the issue for either of the contending forces.

Paris and London, instead of being downcast by the lack of definite news from the front are optimistic. Military experts agree that the struggle has reached its crisis, and the allies are confident of victory.

Paris reports that the great enveloping movement around the army of general von Kluck is proceeding slowly but surely, and that the Kaisers strategists have tried every move only to be repulsed in their effort to relieve the hard pressure right.

All news from the front, official or reports received by newspapers, indicates that the battle of the Aisne has resolved itself into a race between the flanking movement against von Kluck's army before the German rush a great force through the Verdun line, no German troops can remain in French territory. If the Germans break through the barrier, a reverse, but not disaster, may be expected for the allies.

Fresh troops, the weight of new army corps, will most likely decide the contest of speed. Both sides are re-enforcing rapidly. It is believed here that the allies can bring to bear a greater number than the Germans.

London, Sept. 29—The British army authorities are admittedly gravely concerned over the sanitary situation in the field.

Constantly recurring reports which can hardly be overlooked, insist that not only is it true that Asiatic cholera is present in Austria among the wounded in Vienna and Budapest, and among the troops on the firing line in Galicia, but that it has developed in certain parts of Russia In addition, typhoid and typhus, as well as dysentery, are said to be raging in the ranks of some of the German armies and in the Kaiser's navy French and British soldiers have been sent back from the field bases suffering from milder diseases.

Thirty-three thousand Canadian troops are on the St Lawrence on their way to France to fight the Germans. The fleet of nineteen transports bearing the first Canadian contingent to the war sailed Sunday night and the last to get away left early yesterday. The forces include cavalry, infantry and artillery, and are the flower of the Canadian forces.

All navigation has been barred from the Dardanelles by an order of the Turkish government, according to a dispatch from Constantinople. No explanation of the purpose of this order is given. The Dardanelles, the narrow strait which separates Europe from Asia, is always closed to all war vessels except those of Turkey. The strait is heavily fortified.

Martin H. Glynn, Democrat, Chas. S. Whitman, Republican, and Frederick N. Davenport, Progressive, will be the standard bearers of their respective parties in the November gubernatorial election in New York. Returns from yesterday's State-wide primary, which are coming in slowly, indicate that the former two have been nominated by overwhelming majorities, while Davenport seems to have defeated William Sulzer for the Progressive nomination.

A Belgian doctor, who has reached Ghent from Brussels, says that he knows positively that the Kaiser's third son, Prince Adlebert, died in the hospital there and that Dr. Lepage, King Albert's physician, was ordered to hold an autopsy in the presence of two German doctors. It was found, he says, that the prince had been killed by a German bullet, and he adds that in other examinations officers were found to have also died from wounds made by German bullets.

"Religious bigotry, should never influence a Catholic in his vote, but if religious bigotry does influence a political man to be unfair, then in justice to the government and to themselves the Catholics should strive to remove such an unfaitful man from office." This statement was made by Bishop P. J. Donahue, of Wheeling, W. Va., at the afternoon session yesterday of the convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies in Baltimore. The prelate warned his hearers, however, to steer clear of all purely political matters in the affairs of the organization, declaring that the Catholic Church was allied with no political party; that it taught only devotion to God and country.

RUSSIA HAS ONE MILLION IN FIELD

Danger of Flanking Movement by Germans and Austrians Disappears

NICHOLAS IN FIELD.

Czar's Troops Capture Thirty Locomotives, One Thousand Cars and Other Railway Equipment.

Petrograd, Sept. 29.—It is now apparent that the movement through Galicia is the main offensive of the Russian army. It developed today that Grand Duke Nicholas, the commander-in-chief, is with the forces there, which number more than one million men.

The armies are proceeding along parellel lines of railway, moving rapidly westward. With all of the six Carpathian passes occupied by Russian troops, and with strong forces on the Hungarian plains just south of these points, all danger of a possible flanking movement has been disposed of. Consequently the Russian staff declares there is now nothing to retard the invasion of Germany.

Cracow is not the main objective of the army. Neither will there be any halt there to take the place by siege. Instead a strong army will be left there, similar to that now operating against Prsmysl and the main Russian forces will press on to the west, with Breslau and the line of forts of which it is the key as the objective.

It is understood here that the re-enforcements brought from the main mobilizaztion centers have been sent into Galicia to aid the movement there. The possession of all of the railroads in Galicia by the Russians has been of material benefit. When Jaraslaw was taken there fell into the hands of the Russians thirty locomotives and 1,000 cars of every description. At various other points much other railroad equipment was secured.

TERRIBLE TOLL OF WAR.

Austrian Commander Kills Himself On Battlefield.

London Sept. 29—A dispatch to the Telegraph from Petrograd says that on Sunday a spirited account of the destruction of the Hungarian guard, a cavalry division, in the battle of Grodek, appeared in the Russko Slovo, It follows:

"A considerable force of Austrians fell upon the advance guard of General Broussilof, which was composed of infantry, Cossacks and light artillery.

"At first the Austrian infantry moved out for the attack. It was met with a deadly fire of cannon and machine guns and the enemy wavered and fell back.

"Then the cavalry was sent out. The flower of the Austro-Hungarian Army, the Budapest Guard Division, fromed of Magyars, bright jacketed Hungarians, galloped furiously down in close order. It appeared as if nothing could arrest their impetuous course; not even the awful shrapnel fire of the artillery, which brought death and destruction into their ranks, nor even the rain of bullets from machine guns.

"The Magyars did not hesitate for a moment, but continued to charge at our trenches. One more minute and it seemed as if nothing would be left of our infantry.

"All at once the thud of hoofs and the clatter of steel were heard and the Magyars were met by a whirlwind of Cossacks. For two hours the Austrian and Russian infantry watched with beating hearts the scene of terrible carnage.

"At the end of this time of the fine Budapest Guard Division not one man was left, and the whole field was strewn with the enemy's corpses, several heads, hands and legs and dead horses.

"The commander of the division, General Frohreich, could not annul the disgrace of defeat, and shot himself on the battlefield."

Bordeaux, Sept. 29—According to dispatches from the front, the Prussian Guard has been cut to pieces during the fighting of the last three days. The strength of some companies has been reduced from 250 to 100 men. Virtually all the original officers of the guard have been killed or wounded, and two battalions have been annihilated.

STORIES OF CRUELTY.

London, Sept. 29—New stories of German atrocities are constantly trickling in. Here is a letter from Adolphe Coussmaekers, dater Antwerp, which tells of the grossest brutalities:

"It should be known in England that unspeakable outrages and horrible mutilations have been committed on defenseless women and girls by German troops in the district of Orsmael, Velm, and Aerschot, The following nine cases are known.

"Old woman—Throat gashed with bayonet, two wounds on right hand, a bullet in right leg, end of nose cut off.

"Middle-aged woman—Both eyes carried away by bullet, right hand gashed, throat severed with sword cut, left foot broken by bullet.

"Young woman—Two bullets in breast, sword cut in abdomen, ear slightly gashed.

"Domestic servant—Three bleets in abdomen, sword cut in right shoulder, extremity of right ear cut off, left arm shattered.

"Young girl—Throat cut with sword, three bullets, two in abdomen one in left thigh.

"Woman aged 40—Head almost severed from trunk, by sword cut, gashes on both breasts, nose cut off.

"Words fail to convey the horrors suffered by others still alive, and yet the Emperor of Austria has, so we read in the journals, congratulated the kaiser on the glorious successes of his troops. May God save Belgium in these days of her bloody and cruel anguish."

CARRANZA BOWS TO VILLA'S EDICT

Will Resign as Candidate if Latter Will Do Likewise.

WOULD BRING PEACE.

President of Mexico Given Until October 1st to Announce Retirement From Political Arena.

Chihuahua City, Sept. 29—In answer to General Carranza's proposal not to become a candidate for the Presidency, if Villa would adopt the same course General Villa today specified October 1 as the date on which Carranza must make known his withdrawal from politics.

"Let General Carranza evidence his good faith by deeds as well as words, and he shall have my pledge," said General Villa to newspaper men, "and I will, moreover, pledge that none of the generals under my command shall try to assume administrative control neither General Angels nor anyone else. I will pledge further to wholly tranquilizze Northern Mexico, or any section of the Republic to which I may be sent by the ensuing national administration. Mexico needs now, as never before firm and powerful guidance from a civilian administration directing the military divisions. Only by eliminating the military from national politics can armed strife among jealous military leaders be averted, but military aid in cleaning the country of outlaws is essential."

To emphasize the seriousness of his demands, Villa has started a column of troops from Zacatecas, south along the railroad, toward Aguascalientes to make a show of force before the Constitutional garrison there before the main Villa army arrives to open an attack.

A Carranza commission headed by General Alvaro Obregon, is reported to be at Aguascalientes bearing in writing Carranza's offer to resign as first chief of the Constitutionalists and eliminate himself as a Presidential candidate. Villa's reply will be handed to this commission by General Maximo Garcia, who leads Villa's expeditionary force south from Zacatecas.

General Villa has made it plain that unless Carranza resigns when the conference of Constitutionalists generals meets October 1 an immediate att ack on Aguascalientes will result and the most direct road to Mexico City will be taken by his advancing army.

Little is said here regarding Zapata, the southern revoluntionary chieftain, although his aid is partially counted upon in operations around capital. Staff officers say the Zapata brothers are considered so hostile to every other organization that entire relance cannot be placed in them.

STEARNES REPLIES.

Says State Board of Education Did Not Select Tarr's Physical Geography.

Richmond Sept. 29—The present State Board of Education did not select Tarr's New Physicial Geography as a textbook for the public schools of Virginia.

The editor of the Presbyterian of the South is nearly ten years tardy in discovering an objectionable feature in this textbook.

The selection of textbooks for the Virginia schools will not be made until late in the fall or early in the winter of this year.

In the foregoing paragraphs the reply of Superintendent of Public Instruction R. C. Stearnes to the severe criticism passed upon the State Board of Education is summarized. Mr. Stearnes has just returned from a ten days' trip to Franklin, Montgomery, Clarke and Shenandoah Counties. The comment of the Presbyterian of the South on the geography that carries a reference to the Darwinian theory of the evolution of man from monkey was shown him.

SELL NO LIQUOR AT STATE FAIR

Directors Vote Not to Use License Granted Association.

WISHES OF PATRONS.

Recent Statewide Election is Taken by Managers as Index of Views of Majority of Citizens.

Richmond, Sept. 29—Liquor will not be sold at the Virginia State Fair next week. This decision was reached yesterday afternoon when the directors of the Virginia State Fair Association, Inc., passed a resolution not to exercise the privileges granted it under a license issued last May in the Henrico Circuit Court. The meeting was held in the rooms of the association in the Mutual building and the action was practically unanimous.

In deciding not to sell, or permit the sale of liquor at the Fair Grounds the association acceeded to the demands of hundreds of prominent Virginians, who have petitioned the directors and officers, not only this year, but for several years past. The decision puts an end to the annual fight, which has been waged against the issuance of a license, as it is not probable that the association will ever again make application for such a privilege.

"The State-wide election last week" said one director yesterday, "showed that the majority of the people of Virginia are opposed to the sale of intoxicating liquor, and it would have been ungraceful to say the least, for us to go against the will of these people, from whom we get our support. We have made plans for the greatest fair in the history of the association, and we do not want to have any feature on the grounds that would not meet with the approval of our patrons."

The meeting was called for the purpose of taking up routine matters in connection with the approaching fair, but no business of importance, other than the passage of the resolution against the liquor sale, was taken up. In the absence of the president of the association, Henry Fairfax, the chair was filled by J. T. Anderson, vice-president,. The resolution, which was offered by Alvin M. Smith, was as follows.:

"Resolved, That the association do not sell liquor under the license heretofore granted:"

The resolution provoked little discussion, the majority of the members having made their decision before attending the meeting. The sentiment was clearly against the sale, and the resolution was adopted with hardly a dissenting voice.

Mrs. George May Jobson, president of the Woman's Prohibition League of America, which organization led the fight against the license for the fair association, and retained attorneys to fight the case through the courts, last night mailed out letters to the local leagues in Virginia, asking the members to co-operate with her in making the fair a success, in view of the fact that the directors, had decided against the sale of intoxicants. Mrs. Jobson promised her support to President Fairfax last week if the association would take this action, and she will endeavor to carry out her pledge.

Yom Kippur, the Jewish Day of Atonement, will commence in the Jewish Synagogue, on north Washington street, tonight. Rabbi H. R. Richmond, of the Hebrew College, at Cincinnati, will conduct the service which will be continued tomorrow morning.

The purpose of the Day of Atonement is clearly indicated by its name. It is intended to complete and crown the work of the penitential season, begun on the first of Tishri (New Year), by finally reconciling the soul with the Almighty.

ALUMNAE MEETING.

Pleasant Gathering at St. Mary's Academy Last Evening.

The Alumnae meeting held in St. Mary's Academy last evening proved a very enthusiastic affair. The spacious parlors being inadequate for the number present the meeting was held in the Assembly hall of the Academy.

Miss Margaret Greene, vice president, presided in the unavoidable absence of the President, Mrs. Theresa Waters Downey, of Cumberland, Md. The one regretable feature of the occasion was the absence of the devoted and much loved organizer of the Association, Sister M. Remigius, assigned to duty this year in far away Austin, Texas.

The first question proposed to the members last evening was the advisability of changing the date of the annual banquet from October 15th to commencement week in June. Various members presented views, convincing ones too, as to why June the month pre-eminent of "the Sweet girl graduate" was the most desirable for these annual re-unions. At the close of the discussion an unanimous vote decided that beginning with is fear, the annual alumnae banquet and re-union will hereafter be made a feature of commencement week. Other matters were discussed, but not decided. Later on the presidents and other officers will meet and decide these matters definitely.

Among those present at last evening's meeting were:

Miss Margaret Greene, vice-president.

Miss Rose Crilly, secretary.

Miss Agnes Gilroy, treasurer.

Miss Pauline Hellmuth, historian.

Miss Alice Hamill, librarian.

Misses M. Harlow, B. Greene, R. and M. Crilly, A. Hamill, K. Weschler, L. Hill, of Washington. Sisters M. Vincentia, Aline, Clemenzaz, and Constantia, all of St. Mary's Academy, and members of the Alumnae. Mesdames J. and F. Quinn, Frank Peall, T. J. Echolls, Martin Greene, E. Adams, J. P. Wells. Misses Angela Nevitt, E. McGahey, Gertrude Crilly, M. Sweeney, Ella Hill, V. Downey, H. Bowman, M. Goods, P. and M. Hellmuth, H. Mayer, H. Nugent, M. Quinn, N. Murphy, E. Jenkins, M. Byrne, H. Corbett. M. Kavanaugh, M. Greene, A. Gilroy, of this city.

Notes of regret were received from Mrs. Leo Downey, of Cumberland, Md., Mrs. J. Bales, of this city, Miss Theresa Sullivan, of Harrisonburg, Va., Mrs. Guida Kengla, of Eastern College, Manassas, Va., and others.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Through a woman attorney, Mary O'Toole, of the District bar, Edna V. Sullivan, sued in the Supreme Court of Columbia yesterday for a limited divorce from Jeremiah Sullivan, to whom she was married in Alexandria, November 18, 1903, and with whom she lived until September 24 last. Mrs. Sullivan charges her husband with cruelty and alleges that he has several times deserted her and her children, leaving them without funds. She cites one occasion when she alleges she was obliged to apply to the Associated Charities for help. On the advice of the organization, she said, she had her husband arrested, but he was afterward allowed to go free. The Sullivans have four children.

ACCIDENT TO TRAIN.

A south bound electric train struck a telegraph pole a short distance north of Arlington Junction yesterday, and was somewhat damaged. The accident was caused by the breaking of a wheel of the trailer. No one was hurt and there was but little delay in the running of trains.

FEAT OF AVIATION.

Lincoln Beachey in an aeroplane looped the loop four times over the dome of the capitol yesterday while President Wilson watched the performance from a White House window. The aviator then made such an abrupt landing on the Potomac lowlands near the Washington Monument, that observers in the tall wireless towers at the Arlington radio station reported he had fallen.

Beachey finished the performance turning two loops over the White House and then more loops, flying low over the business section of the city, while government officials and thousands of spectators held their breath.

Many Alexandrians witnessed the marvelous feats.

"A WAR FOR PEACE"

One of the most significant editorials of the month on the European situation appeared recently in the Wall Street Journal. It is entitled "A War for Peace."

A few extracts are copied:

The greatest blessing that can befall Germany is defeat and disarmament. For her disarmament would mean the dismantling of all the fortifications on both sides of her frontier and also a general European disarmament.

Germany would then be unhampered by military strain and taxes, and free to re-enter more fully the race in which she naturally belongs—the commercial race, in mining, manufacturing and shipping.

Her standard of living and wages would gradually rise and she would be for all the world not only a great producing, but one of the great consuming nations. On the other hand her military success over all Europe would burden her with the maintenance of a war machine and a war aggressiveness which might in the end be her total destruction.

Nobody really wishes the dismemberment of the German Empire, and yet there are serious proposals that Germany can only be held down as a world power by dismemberment as such as the destruction of the Prussian military party and the house of Hohenzollern. Dismemberment would mean the crippling of Germany commercially, and thereby a damage to the whole world.

It is universally agreed that Belgium is justly entitled to full indemnity; but damages by punishment upon Germany should not be sought. An over-indemnification, either by money or lands, engenders later friction or later augments friction which may arise from other causes.

When Japan made peace with Russia without a kopek for indemnity she showed herself entitled to rank with every Christian nation. She had proven her patriotism and that she was not a nation designed for loot or piracy.

France is not in the position of Belgium. France has not been as guilty of war preparation, aimed to take from Germany, as Germany has been guilty of war preparation aimed to take from England.

France is wise enough and England is wise enough and Russia is young enough to be careful concerning indemnity exactions from Germany. All have been war powers, and if they now triumph in their united action against Germany they can find the largest indemnity and lasting peace, which will save much more than it could ever hope to collect, as a finality from Germany.

SERVIANS PRESSING ON.

Troops In Bosnia Occupy Romanis Mountain, Nish Reports.

Paris, Sept. 29—A dispatch from Nish to the Havas Agency, dated September 27, says:

"The Servian troops advancing in Bosnia have occupied Romanis Mountain, near Sarajevo.

"The Servian troops from Belgrade drove the enemy from Ada Tzinglia and from Ada Mala, inflicting heavy losses.

"The Austrians are redoubling their efforts more to the north to cross the Save and the Danube. The last attempt to pass into Servia near Belgrade cost them some hundreds of dead, among them a number of officers.

"Otherwise there is practically no change in the situation on the various fronts."

Rome, via Paris, Sept. 29—Dispatches from Nish, Servia, say that the Servians and Montenegrins have been greeted by the Bosnians as liberators. Bosnian volunteers to the number of 5,880 have joined the Servian army, it is said.

BELGIANS ATTACKING

Germans Reported Driven Back With Heavy Loss.

London, Sept. 29—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegraph Company from Amsterdam says that the Germans in again bombarding Malines and at the same attacking Grembergen were repulsed by the Belgians, with heavy losses.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Blankenbergh Belgium, under Sunday's date, says that the Belgians have blown up the viaduct at Bierghes, thus cutting railway communication between Mons and Brussels.

In a dispatch from Ostend, the correspondent to Reuter's Telegraph Company says that the Belgians, anticipating a German attack on Alost having sent the inhabitants away. This town has been reoccupied by the Belgians. The Germans Sunday bombarded Alost, inflicting considerable damage, including the burning of a hospital. The Germans were driven back in the direction of Asche, which is six miles northwest of Brussels.

Paris, Sept. 29—A dispatch to the Petit Parisien from Amsterdam says that violent fighting has occured between the Germans and Belgians at Schooten, four miles east of Antwerp at Termode, 16 miles east of Ghent, and Hofstade, 18 miles east of Ghent. In the latter locality the heavy German artillery became stuck in the mud and the Germans were obliged to retire before the attacks of the Belgians.

It is confirmed, says the dispatch, that the Germans are fortifying Liege.

Sure Indications of Lung Trouble

Among the indications of threatened Lung Trouble are a continued cough, fever and night sweats. A change of climate often helps, but it seems that something more is needed to stop the cough and sweats and arrest the progress of disease. Eckman's Alterative, after many years of use, is known to be most beneficial in bringing about relief, in many cases complete recoveries. Investigate this case:— Schell City, Mo.

"Gentlemen: I had a terrible cough, night sweats and pleurisy in my lungs. A man who heard me coughing advised me to take your Alterative. I paid no attention to him then, I got so bad the doctor said I should go to Wyoming. I did, and when I got there I steadily grew worse. Then I remembered what had been told me about your medicine. I began taking it, with no faith whatever, but before I had taken three bottles, I could eat anything. Fever and night-sweats stopped and for over a year I have been well and in better health than I ever was."

(Affidavit). W. F. BOMAR.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists
